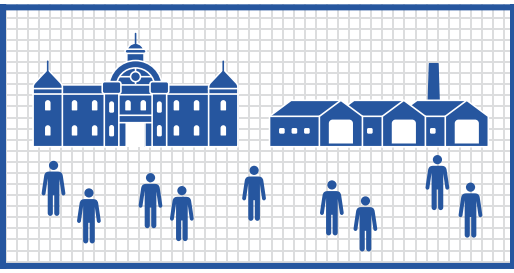
Fuji Electric by the Numbers

Visual statistics of Fuji Electric.

Fuji Electric
Innovating Energy Technology

Established

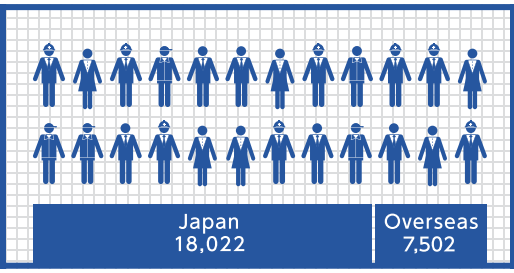
1923



Fuji Electric is set up as a capital and technology alliance between Japan "Furukawa Electric Co., Ltd." and German "Siemens AG". Since then, we aim to pursue technological innovation in electric and thermal energy.

Employees

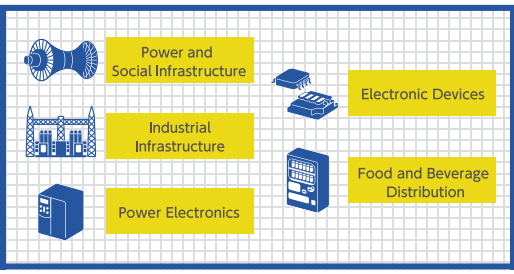
25,524 people*1



Our employees have diverse values and lead the cutting edge of energy technology; offering products that are ahead of the times.

Business Segments

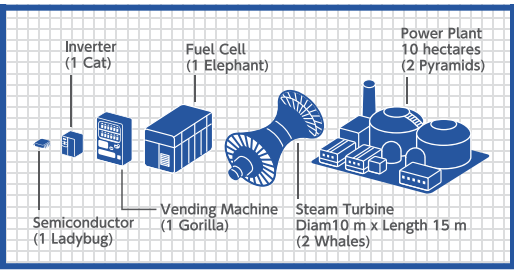
5 segments*1



Fuji Electric contributes to the creation of responsible and sustainable societies; Power and Social Infrastructure, Industrial Infrastructure, Power Electronics, Electronic Devices, and Food and Beverage Distribution.

Products

290,000 items*1

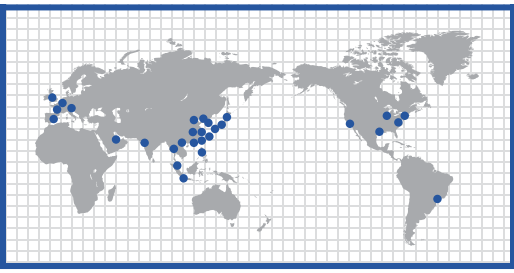


Based upon the experience and knowledge, Fuji Electric has products ranging from small Semiconductor to larger Power Plants. We provide total solutions contributing to lower energy consumption to a range of customers.

(*Numbers of items are based on product models types)

Sales Network

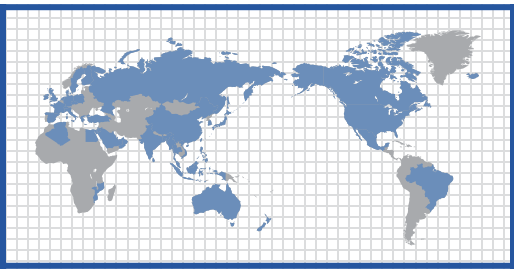
104 offices*1



Fuji Electric is located in 104 locations and 21 countries. Through these networks, we deliver products to customers around the world; contributing to the resolution of energy management problems.

Product spread area

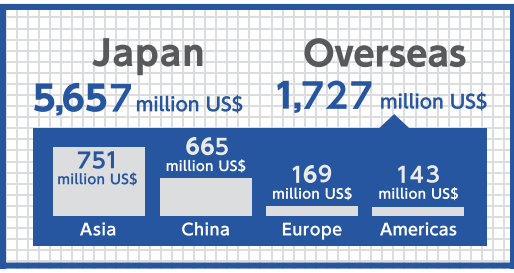
52 countries*1



Fuji Electrics' products are introduced in more than 50 countries. We pursue technological innovation in electric and thermal energy and continue to provide environmentally friendly products that use maximum efficiency energy.

Sales

7,383 million US$*1



Fiscal Sales for 2013 were 7,383 million US$. The overseas sales ratio is approximately 23%.

*At the rate of ¥102.92 = U.S.$1

*1 as of March 31,2014

Copyright©Fuji Electric Co., Ltd. All Rights Reserved.