Notice Regarding the Status of Damage and Impact on Business Activities as a result of the Tohoku Pacific Offshore Earthquake (2nd Report)

Fuji Electric Holdings Co., Ltd. (the "Company") expresses its deepest condolences to those affected by the Tohoku Pacific Offshore Earthquake. Our thoughts are with them and we hope for the earliest possible recovery.

As of March 24, the current status of damage incurred by the Company and its subsidiaries, and details of the anticipated effect on business activities are presented briefly as follows:

1. Current status of employees and facilities

(1) Employees

The company has confirmed the safety of all employees.

(2) Facilities

Minor damage to buildings, infrastructure and production facilities was sustained at the subsidiaries listed below. Recovery efforts have been undertaken and operations have resumed.

- Fukiage Factory (Konosu City, Saitama Prefecture), Fuji Electric FA Components & Systems Co., Ltd.
- Otawara Factory (Otawara City, Tochigi Prefecture), Fuji Electric FA Components & Systems Co., Ltd.

2. Current anticipated effect on business activities

With the suspension of activities at certain factories due to rolling blackouts, and taking into consideration the delay of delivery and receipt of materials and components by affected suppliers, the Company recognizes an impact on production activities.

3. The impact on consolidated performance and business results

The impact of the earthquake on the Company's consolidated performance and business results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2011 is currently being assessed.
