*1. The requirement for adoption is a majority of the affirmative voting rights of the shareholders present at the meeting where the shareholders holding one third or more of the voting rights of shareholders who are entitled to exercise their voting rights are present.

*2. The method for calculating the ratio of affirmative votes is as follows:

The approval ratio represents the ratio of affirmative votes for an agenda item from shareholders voting beforehand and shareholders in attendance (proxy of shareholders who have submitted a proxy statement, acting agents for representatives of corporate shareholders that have submitted acting agent appointment notification, and the Company's corporate officers) among the total number of votes exercised by shareholders attending the General Meeting of Shareholders (portion from all shareholders who voted the day before the General Meeting of Shareholders and shareholders who voted the day of).

(4) Reasons why a portion of the number of voting rights held by shareholders in attendance at the General Meeting of Shareholders was not included in the number of voting rights

Resolutions of all the proposals have been legitimately reached in accordance with the Companies Act, as the requirements for approval have been met based on the number of the following confirmed votes of approval or disapproval among the number of voting rights exercised up to the day before this General Meeting of Shareholders via voting forms, the Internet, and other means, as well as the number of voting rights exercised by those in attendance. Therefore, voting rights exercised other than in the manner listed below were not included in the calculation.

- Number of voting rights exercised by proxies acting on behalf of shareholders who have submitted proxy statements
- Number of voting rights exercised by proxies acting on behalf of corporate shareholders who have submitted acting agent appointment notification
- Number of voting rights exercised by shareholders who are also corporate officers of the Company
